

The Announcement of the Secretariat of the Prime Minister Intentions in Work Operation to Enhance Integrity and Transparency of the Secretariat of the Prime Minister

.....

The Secretariat of the Prime Minister realizes the importance of work operation for the highest benefits of the people and all sectors in society by upholding the public advantages rather than personal preferences. The Secretariat of the Prime Minister focuses on enhancing morality and transparency in agency. Thus, the Secretariat of the Prime Minister expresses our commitments to operate with honesty, fairness, transparency and refrain from any forms of corruption by adopting the Sufficiency Economy Philosophy and Good Governance into our framework in order to ensure effective administration and visible achievement.

The Secretariat of the Prime Minister has set procedures for all executives and officials as follows.

1. Transparency

Support disclosure of basic information on administration, financial, budget, and human resource by allowing a comprehensive and present accessibility. Allow the public and stakeholders, internal and external, to share their opinions and monitor the agency's performance for transparency and accountability.

2. Accountability

Officials shall perform work with honesty and be responsible for their performance. Also, they must take complaints from stakeholders and proceed with appropriate procedures and responses.

3. Corruption-free Performance

Conduct policy with integrity and lead the agency's performance with transparency. All the procedures must abide by rules and regulations, and not requesting or accepting bribery, with frequent monitoring and improvement of working system in order to prevent corruption.

4. Corporate Integrity Culture

Encourage a culture of anti-corruption in all forms and uphold public interest. Executives shall perform with morality and set good examples, along with having intention in enhancing "Integrity Goal" in agency, namely sufficiency, disciplinary, honesty, and volunteer spirit.

5. Work Integrity

Officials shall follow the agency's standard, transparency, and non-discriminatory. They shall perform by follow the procedures with punctuality, quality and fairness in managing human resource, work assignments, budget, management, along with creating friendly work environment and maximizing the use of government assets for the public benefits.

6. Communication in the Organization

Manage efficient communication methods using internal circular documents and agency's public announcements to inform all of the executives and officials of the Secretariat of the Prime Minister.

Issued on March 30, 2020
(Mr. Distat Hotrakitya)
Secretary-General to the Prime Minister